“Inspiring students to become the best they can be.”

FORM 180-3

Canada’s Anti-Spam Law (CASL) Consent to Receive Electronic Messages

Wetaskiwin Regional Public Schools wants to keep you informed on the latest school events and activities relating to the Division, school, or school council by sending out electronic messages via the School Messenger messaging system or emails. These communications may include information related to school offers and activities such as field trips, student photos or clothing, yearbooks, advertisements, and events.

This information is consistent with what has been provided to you in previous years, but because these types of announcements are now referenced in the Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation, schools must adhere to the requirements of that legislation and receive permission prior to distributing this information electronically.

I hereby consent to receive electronic messages from Wetaskiwin Regional Public Schools.
